Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater

Supplies needed:

- Pumpkin template
- Poem
- White card stock
- Photo paper
- Picture of each child (Holding arms up)
- Double sided tape
- Color card stock (to tape finished pumpkin on)
- Green and orange marker

Directions:

- Have older children color pumpkin template (2 pumpkin templates on each sheet).
- Have children cut pumpkin out.
- Take a picture of each child holding their arms up. Print and cut out the shape of their body. (Younger children can lay on the floor and take their picture).
• Using double sided tape, tape the legs of the child to the back of the bottom portion of the pumpkin.
• Tape this to a piece of green card stock.
• Have children add the top of the pumpkin.
• Cut out poem and write in name.
• Glue or tape to pumpkin.

Hang up and enjoy!
Poem for girls
Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater.
Had but couldn't keep her.
He kept her in a pumpkin shell,
And there he kept her very well.

Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater.
Had but couldn't keep her.
He kept her in a pumpkin shell,
And there he kept her very well.

Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater.
Had but couldn't keep her.
He kept her in a pumpkin shell,
And there he kept her very well.
Poem for boys
Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater.
Had but couldn't keep him.
He kept him in a pumpkin shell,
And there he kept him very well.

Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater.
Had but couldn't keep him.
He kept him in a pumpkin shell,
And there he kept him very well.

Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater.
Had but couldn't keep him.
He kept him in a pumpkin shell,
And there he kept him very well.